State Dept. Offers Travel Opportunities

These are the days of increasing travel opportunities for young men and women who can type and/or take shorthand and meet the requirements of the United States Department of State.

Classroom-bound, narrow from geography books, and from the study of world maps, thousands of young Americans who have joined the United States Foreign Service travel around the world. And all of them agree that the year-round opportunities for travel beat the traditional two-weeks-with-pay.

United States Department of State Personnel Officers from Washington, D.C., will conduct interviews at the Louisiana State Employment Service Office, 441 Canal Street, New Orleans, from Jan. 14 through Jan. 29, 9 to 5 PM daily, until 6 PM Wednesday.

Young men and women, 21 to 35 years of age, single with no dependents, and who are American citizens in excellent health, now being sought for the Foreign Service to fill positions as typists, stenographers, communications clerks and general clerks. Three years of general office experience or a substitution of education for no more than two years of experience is a requirement, as well as performance tests for typists and stenographers—50 words per minute in typing and 80 words per minute in shorthand for stenographers. General clerks are required to type at the rate of 35 words per minute and comprehension tests at 40 words per minute.

The starting salary for all positions is $2,000 a year plus overseas allowances which, at various points, range from 10 to 25 per cent of the base salary. Overseas housing is provided to all employees at their expense.

Assignments are made for two years, after which the employee is reassigned to another post. This leave is in addition to the 15-day vacation leave and the 13-day sick leave given all employees at their posts.

Typist and stenographer positions in Washington, D.C., are open to anyone who is 18 years of age and who has a high school diploma. Typists begin at $3,175 per year; stenographers at $3,415 per year. All employees receive annual salary increases for satisfactory service.

Typist and stenographer positions are open for women, between the ages of 25 and 40, with a BS degree in Public Health and minimum of 30 semester hours of study in public health subjects and one year of experience in public health nursing. Beginning salary is $5,600 per annum, plus overseas allowances and free housing.

Qualified candidates are urged to come in for a personal interview, or call Magnus 3941 for further details.

View Says

Q — I started War Reliance Schooling, as soon as I received a "provisional approval." Afterwards, occasional counseling showed that I picked the wrong course. I want to change to a new course more in keeping with my aptitudes. Will this count as one of the two-course changes the law allows me?

A — It will count as a course change, if you use VA to backdate your monthly allowances to the date of the "provisional approval." If you wait, however, you can have the VA payments begin when you start your new course. That way, you would not be charged with a change of course, and you still would be entitled to the two changes allowed by law.

Q — I am planning to sell my GI house, and I've applied to VA for a release of liability. Is there any charge involved in getting this release?

A — The cost of a credit report on the buyer must be borne either by you or the purchaser. Also, if it is necessary to record the Assumption Agreement and Release, this cost must be assumed by you or the buyer.

Q — I am the widow of a World War II veteran, and I have been drawing a monthly VA pension. I am planning to get married. Will my pension continue after my marriage?

A — No. Under the law, your pension must be stopped when you marry.

Q — I am in a military hospital, waiting to get my disability discharge. May I begin vocational rehabilitation training while I am in the hospital? Or must I wait until I leave the hospital and receive my discharge?

A — You may begin vocational rehabilitation training while you are hospitalized. However, you won't be paid a subsistence allowance until after you receive your discharge from service. The law prohibits payment of the allowance concurrently with active service pay.

choice gardeners, rolled aschevin, Red-cream, mowdow-system, herring in new cream, scatted dandelions, goosebush, oak clay, Swedish moonbush, mountained shrimp, (or perhaps a shrimp moonbush) native to the area, assorted changes, a halfed bean cucumber, an assortment of cheese, radishes, and an assortment of breads and crackers. Additional items on your taste and pocketbook permit may be added.

As simplicity is the keynote both in the foods and service, (your guests serve themselves), the popular straw, wicker, iron, copper and pottery serving dishes are ideal for your table. A bright tablecloth and a small centerpiece arrangement of fruit, flowers and candles are in keeping with the same simplicity.

Traditional smorgasbord beverages include beer and ale, but for those who prefer non-alcoholic, these may be served from the buffet.

For the Swedish touch, the following hints are offered to

In a skillet, cook one shallot, onion and carrot-onion until tender, but not browned. Add minced onion, meat and seasonings to the bread crumb mixture and mix thoroughly. Shape into one such ball. Chill until firm. Melt remaining butter in skillet and brown the balls a few at a time, shaking skillet frequently to keep from burning and to keep balls round.

Place in casserole for immediate service. These may be made ahead of time and reheated.

Entertaining can be a pleasure when you offer your guests a booklet entitled "Smorgasbord" and tells you exactly how to do it. The daily illustrated, 12-page information. There's a basic menu in addition so that you can please personal preferences and the menu. Included also are typical party customs. For example, beer is served from a pitcher decanted from a cooler.
